Sub:- 'e-box' for online complaint management system.

Sir,

In compliance with the direction of the Hon'ble Chairperson of the Juvenile Justice Committee, High Court, Calcutta, you are hereby informed that the National Commission of Child Rights (NCPCR) has developed a system known as 'e-box' for online complaint management system. It is simple and easy to use and can be utilized by any person in distress without going directly to the police.

In view of this and under direction from the said Hon'ble Committee you are requested to circulate the information among all the primary schools in your district so that the students become aware of the process and may utilize the same at the time of necessity.

The information is available in the NCPCR website at <http://www.ncpcr.gov.in/>. The website also contains a manual for using the e-box. A copy of such manual is enclosed herewith for ready reference.

The matter is important and urgent.

I would request your good self to send a report to this authority regarding such circulation at the earliest, in order to enable this authority to apprise the Hon'ble Juvenile Justice Committee, High Court, Calcutta as regards the compliance of the direction of the said Hon'ble Committee.

Anticipating your cordial co-operation and thanking you,

Encl:- As stated above. (6 sheets)

yours faithfully,
